

"Wisdom has built her house

She has set up
Her seven pillars....

She has mixed
Her wine,

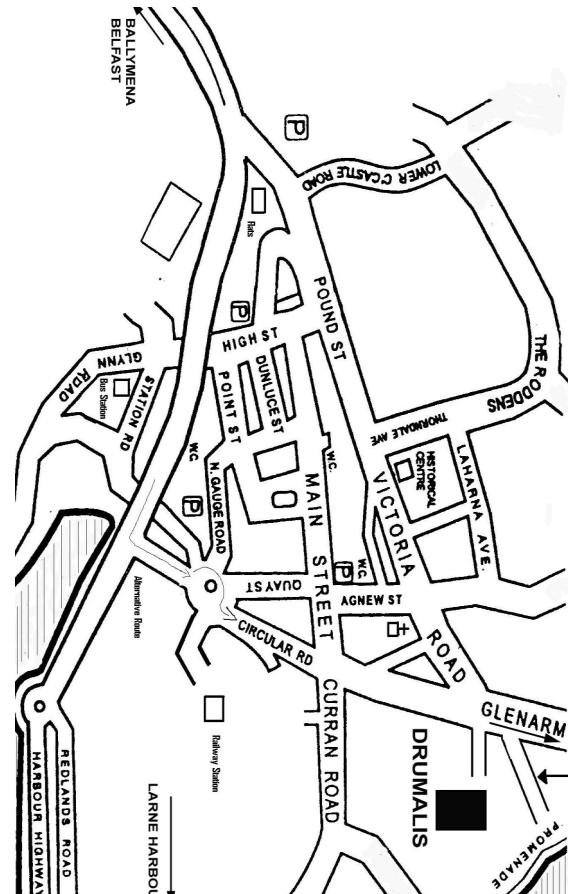

She has also set
Her table

She has sent out
Her wo/men ministers to call from the highest place in the town....

"Come eat of my bread
and drink of the wine
I have mixed.

Leave immaturity, and live,
And walk in the way of Wisdom."
(Proverbs 9:1-3, 5-6)

DIRECTIONS

“Wise Women and Prophetesses: Journeying with Women in the Bible”

This weekend will offer a short course for anyone who would like to gain a deeper insight into the stories of female characters from both the Old and New testaments.

You will gain fresh insights and perspectives that will provide a richer understanding on why the stories of women in the bible are important for both women and men today.

The weekend will be prayerful, dialogical and reflective.

Sheila Curran is a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of Mercy, Northern Province. She works as a practical theologian from an eco-feminist perspective. Her ministry, research and writing have been shaped by her biblical studies alongside her experience of living and working with those on the margins both in Ireland and Peru. Sheila currently works with migrants and refugees and in interfaith dialogue in the city of Dublin while also giving retreats and conferences both in Ireland and internationally.

Duration:

The weekend retreat will begin with registration from 5:00 pm on Friday evening. An evening meal will be served at 6:00 pm. The introductory session will begin at 7:30 pm.

The retreat will end on Sunday afternoon after lunch.

Cost:

The cost of the retreat, which is being generously subsidised by the Friends of Drumalis, is £150 per person on a residential basis which includes all meals and accommodation.
